

Information sheet about Marvin's Story Time Show

What is Marvin's Story Time Show? (1 min film)

Marvin's Story Time Show is a bright, colourful, online, structured literacy programme incorporating specific approaches and elements to effectively promote the engagement and participation of children/young people/adults with special needs in story time. Read more about the show's structure.

Who developed the programme?

Gwyn McCormack, CEO Positive Eye. Award winning, internationally known Special Needs Educator with 41 years of teaching experience.

What are the three main aims of the programme?

2-minute clip of the live action

- To give access to stories beyond the typical story book
- To promote opportunity to develop literacy access skills, e.g. visual, tactile, auditory, language, concept, book, and story.
- To have the greatest opportunity for fun and laughter whilst enjoying accessible story time

Who is the target audience?

1 minute film of children/young people watching the show

The programme works for all ages, abilities, and needs. A range of elements ensure there is something for everyone, recognising that it may not all be for everyone.

E.g.: Successful participation to date by children and young people/adults with PMLD, MLD, SLD, Deafblind, VI, HI, autism; Early years; Primary (mainstream and special) Secondary special.
